

AL-ANON FAMILY GROUPS, FLORIDA SOUTH (AREA 10) ALATEEN BEHAVIORAL REQUIREMENTS FOR CONVENTIONS

BOTH Alateen and Parent/Guardian must sign

Violation of these Behavioral Requirements or of any Florida or local laws will result in removal of the Alateen from the Alateen workshops. Note: Parents / guardians are responsible for the Alateen's behavior at all times during the convention. Al-Anon Members Involved in Alateen Service (AMIAS) are only responsible for Alateen Safety while the Alateen is in an Alateen Workshop.

1. All Alateens must be registered for the convention. The current South Florida (Area 10) Parental Permission and Medical Release form must be completed, signed, and notarized.
2. The parent / guardian and the Alateen must sign this Alateen Behavioral Requirements form.
3. All Alateen Members are responsible for themselves and their behavior.
4. Name tags must be worn at ALL TIMES.
5. Roughhousing, fighting, overt and covert sexual behavior, or any other inappropriate activities are not allowed.
6. Possession of cigarettes / vaping devices, alcohol and/or drugs is strictly forbidden.
7. Alateens will not be allowed to leave the workshop until the parent / guardian picks them up. Parents or guardians must pick up Alateen participants from the meeting room as scheduled. Please be considerate and arrive on time. Do not send someone else to pick up your Alateen.
8. Parents / Guardians must leave accurate contact numbers (cell number and hotel room, if staying in the hotel.) They are encouraged to check their phones regularly for text messages and to answer phone calls.
9. Hotel rules and regulations must be followed. Any intentional or accidental destruction of hotel property will be the responsibility of the parent /guardian.
